VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains ELEVEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE ACRES. of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in Wake county, and the bottom land will always produce under its Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

Mrs. S. D. HARRISON.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, Editors.

Tuesday Evening, Dec. 11, 1866.

What will Congress Do?

This is a question which perplexes the whole country and people, but none more so than the Congress itself. The rejection of the plan of the President is far more easy than to provide a better one, or one at all. If the plan adopted by the President be illegitimate or without authority, will Congress be able to provide one more constitutional or more legitimate? We think not. Hence the anxiety of the Congress, that the Southern States should of their own will relieve that body of the difficulty, by passing the Howard amendment.

This the South cannot do, without self degredation. First, to vote for the Howard amendment would be to forswear themselves. The Southern people have sworn to support and maintain the Constitution with the anti-slavery amendment. But the Howard amendment directly impinges and violates the Constitution they have sworn to support. The Constitution as it now stands, recognizes the rights of the States to manage their own municipal affairs—it respects the decisions and authority of the State Courts within their proper jurisdiction—it recognizes the claims of their citizens to hold office under such restrictions as the States themselves impose. In all these respects, the proposed amendment is antagonistic to the Constitution. It enlarges vastly the powers of Congress, and centralizes more power than is consistent or safe to the personal liberty of the citizen, in the General Government, thus subverting by gradual encroachments, our Republican form of government.

Great fears have been excited in regard to violent measures on the part of Congress. That body will do what it can safely, to circumscribe and fetter the Southern States. It will not, however, jeopard the influence and power of the Republican party. That party means to maintain its ascendency at all risks and sacrifices. It will not destroy its popularity, if moderation towards the South will prevent that. Yet it will not risk a course of violence at the risk of dividing the party. We therefore conclude that Congress will not attempt the following measures:

1. It will not impeach the President.

2. It will not attempt to throw the Southern States back into a territorial condition. That would increase the patronage of the President; absolve the States from their indebtedness; relieve them from taxation for the support of even their territorial governments.

3. It will do nothing to excite the public sympathy either for the President or the Southern States.

4. It will not directly supercede the present State governments, and establish provisional governments after the fashion of those formed by the President. This would be a blow at themselves. The results would be the same in both cases.

5. Nor will it adopt the new programme, of assuming that the amendment on its receiving three-fourths of the votes of the Northern States, is part of the Constitution.

Congress will not risk anything so glaringly unconstitutional, that can easily be brought to the test of the U. S. Supreme Court. Our opinion, therefore is, that it will resolve upon adhering to the Constitutional amendment as the sine qua non, of the reconstruction of the Southern States. It will do this, with the certain expectation that the Southern States will continue to refuse to adopt the amendment, and thus it will throw upon them the burden of remaining out of Congress and prevent their participation in the next Presidential election.

So far as Congress can continue to harrass us by law and afflict and degrade us, may be looked for, as far as it can go without exciting sympathy for us.

The Latter Day Saints.

This expression is applied by the "Red String" crew, to those who manfully stood for the cause of Southern independence until resistance was useless, and then accepted the situation in good faith. This term too they use synonymously with "secessionists," by way of reproach. It is a little remarkable that the most abusive men in the nation of secessionists, are those who were foremost in secession. Witness, Greely, Wade, Stanton at the North, and Hamilton and Holden at the South. And yet these claim to be the true Union men!! Perhaps, there is not a more bitter, so-called, original Union man in this State, and one more abusive of secessionists in his way, than Mr. Blair, one of the Commoners from Randolph. Though a small man, he stands about the equal in intelligence and in bitterness along with the best of his clique.—And yet we are credibly informed, before the war begun, he was one of the most violent fire-eating secessionists in all the region round about Trap Hill. Mr. Blair was engaged in wagoning produce to South Carolina, and at a very early period took the secession fever in the natural way and had it good. Would any one believe it now, that this same Mr. Blair on one of his last trips from South Carolina, before the war broke out, came back with the secession cockade in his hat, breathing fire and sword against the Yankees! We are told, he boldly declared, about that time, that if North Carolina did not secede, he would leave the State. We should not be surprised, if among the Howard amendment men in the Legislature, there are not half of them of the same stripe. And yet they tauntingly call the true men of the State, latter day saints and secessionists. We should like to get up a roll of these worthies in the State, to stand along side of Holden and Blair.

Test Oath.—The question immediately before the U. S. Supreme Court, is the eligibility of lawyers who were engaged in the rebellion, to practice in the Supreme Court. It is said that the decision does not touch the case of members of Congress or officers of the United States.

A bill for the benefit of the poor of the County of Bladen, passed its several readings.

The House then adjourned.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The scheme for a perpetual Congress meets opposition. Connecticut does not elect until April, and California could not be here in time. Several other States would be without representation until summer. The Radicals are playing at cross purposes and their perplexity increases every day.

Philadelphia, Dec. 5.—An improvement on the plan of smelting iron has been made in the foundry of the Philadelphia navy-yard. By this improvement, where it occupied before three hours in smelting a few hundred pounds of iron, it is now accomplished in one hour.

New York, Dec. 7.—Charles Cady, bookkeeper and confidential clerk for Ricker & Co., Mining Stock Brokers, No. 80 Broadway, decamped on Wednesday, November 28th, taking with him certificates of stock in first class mining companies. He had over $100,000 dollars, which he abstracted from the safe. The defaulter was arrested last night at his hotel, after a desperate struggle. He acknowledged his guilt, and delivered up all the stolen property, and admitted also defrauding the firm to a large amount by false entries on the books.

Charleston, Dec. 5.—The receipts of cotton at all the ports since September 1st are put down at 475,000 bales. The exports from New Orleans the past week were 7,500 bales, of which 4,000 went to France. From Mobile there were no exports to foreign ports.

Louisiana News.—Governor Wells of Louisiana, had issued orders to the sheriffs or perishes where vacancies have occurred in the Legislature, to have the necessary special election to fill the same.

Great stagnation prevails in ordinary business. The failure of the Canal street dry goods houses is announced. Auctioneers complain that nothing sells unless at heavy losses.

The country press is counselling more small farms, and not relying on negro labor.

The news from Washington excites much attention and apprehension, but there is no disposition to resist even the most oppressive acts.

One tract containing about 457 acres, adjoining the first mentioned tract on the North, and that of Luke Lancaster on the South. This tract has also some improvements in the way of Negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.

One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Dr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 585 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. This tract has no improvements, but could easily be put in a condition for cultivation, and is remarkably well adapted to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco and Corn.

One tract known as the "Arcola Tract," situated at the point where the Halifax and Louisburg road crosses the Warrenton and Nashville road. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn. It has on it, just at the cross-roads, a convenient Store House, which is undoubtedly one of the best stands for a Country Store in the State.

The said Tracts of land will be sold at public auction, on a credit of twelve (12) months, with interest from date, and bond with approved security will be required from the purchaser.

The Subscriber will take pleasure in showing the land to any person who may wish to examine it

The Memorial Fair

Will open on Friday night the 14th at 8 o'clock, and continue through the day on Saturday, and Saturday night. We hope the public generally will honor us with a call, and leave with us some of their greenbacks.

We have pretty and useful things and substantial clothing for the poor, and will have a nice supper. Come friends and try it.

Dec. 11—3t.

BEETS.—We are indebted to the Lunatic Asylum for two fine beets on yesterday, each weighing eight pounds. They were about as large as good beets usually grow. Dr. Fisher is famous for a good garden. As soon as we can get space, we will show what is raised at the Asylum for its own consumption at an inconsiderable expense to the State.

USURY LAWS.—The repeal of the usury laws is again urged upon the Virginia Legislature, as necessitated by the commercial exigencies of the State. Capital it is alleged will not come into the State or be thrown upon the market, while the value of money is thus hampered.

GOING AHEAD.—A manufacturing company in Danville, Va., applies for a charter to the Virginia Legislature, its capital to be $1,500,000.

A fire occurred in Norfolk on Friday night last, consuming a number of houses, occasioning much loss.

GONE—GOING.—A number of families, composing some of the best material of this county, have taken up their winding way for new homes in Georgia, Mississippi, and elsewhere in the southwest, and others are making preparations to start before the 1st of January. By that time at least some ten families will have sought homes in the Southwest.—Wadesboro' Argus.

And such is the cry we hear from different parts of the State. Our friends may be acting wisely, but it strikes us, five years will not elapse before they will wish they were back.—We need a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether, to get the State out of the mud.—Our people can do it if they will go to work in good earnest. Stand by the old ship, though she may yet have to pass through the breakers.

STEAMBOAT DISASTER.—A most shocking disaster occurred on the Chesapeake Bay on board the steamer Kelso, one of the regular bay boats, on Saturday morning last. The Kelso left her wharf on Friday evening at Baltimore.—Nothing occurred out of the way until she reached the vicinity of the Wolf Trap Light Boat, when about half-past 3 o'clock, A. M., the steam drum burst, filling all her apartments with scalding water. Great consternation ensued. Four of the coal-passers were scalded to death and nineteen others scalded, some seriously. We observe the names of A. S. Osborne, of Oxford, and C. W. Mixon, of Edenton, in this State, seriously wounded.—Every effort was made to relieve them. Drs. Purcell, of Baltimore, and Wilson, of Windsor, N. C., being on board unhurt, exerted themselves. In this condition the steamer was anchored and gave signs of distress, but no relief came until about 12 o'clock on Saturday, the steamer City of Norfolk, on her way from Annemessex to Norfolk, came along side and took the wounded, passengers and mail and brought them to Nortolk. Mr. Mixon was in a critical situation. Several horses and mules on board, were so badly burned they were knocked in the head.

Col. Russ' Resolutions.

Our neighbor is mistaken in supposing that the resolutions presented by Col. Russ, were written by Mr. Davis. Mr. D. most heartily endorsed them, but did not write them. At least that is our understanding. No one had a better right to know whether the resolutions were called for or not, than Col. Russ. If Union men had been persecuted in the State, he would have known it, and if these charges of persecution had been true, he would have been the last man to present those resolutions. It was his conviction that this clamor had been kept up for political purposes, and was damaging to the State, that drew from him so emphatic a denial.

The Stave Business.

Formerly a very large and profitable business was carried on in our Eastern counties in getting staves for the West India, Northern and Liverpool markets. Hogshead and barrel timber, red and white oak, has become scarce in the Eastern counties, but there are large quantities in the middle and upper counties. The present prices of hogshead, pipe and barrel staves and heading, will justify their being made and shipped by Railroad. One great advantage of this business, it gives employment to hands during the winter months, when nothing can be done on the farms.

The cotton crop has been gathered and ginned. All the cotton will be in by the first of January, as planters cannot hold out. Sugar cane is nearly all being ground and none kept for seed. The yield of sugar is small, because small crops were planted.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—The paper of the 29th of November is at hand, containing my letter to you on the subject of the exigencies of the times. I had hopes that it would be unnecessary to say anything more upon the subject, but simply give my views, without note or comment. In this, however, I have been disappointed, and it becomes necessary for me, in justice to myself and those who think with me, to vindicate myself and them against the implied charge of dishonesty. You will therefore pardon me for this intrusion upon your time and patience, and allow me to notice and reply to your editorial, which I find in the same paper containing my letter above referred to. I have, by what I said in my letter to you, been influenced by no selfish motives, for, as an individual, I defy all laws now in existence, which could touch my own pecuniary or other situation, although I have, in common with others, had to submit to heavy lossses, in negroes and other property, consequent upon our late struggle. I have an abiding hope, that in the providences of God, I can get along without much trouble to myself or family, therefore no such unholy motives have or shall influence me. If, in what I have said, I have used the arguments of the strait-out repudiationist, I can only reply that I was not aware of it, for I have never seen the position occupied by myself, taken by any one with whom I have conversed. If therefore I have unwittingly used their arguments, it is simply because they were suggested to my mind by circumstances surrounding me.

I am aware that you have held the dignified and honorable position for many years, of teacher of the divine will, while you have in a public manner been directing the way-worn traveller to a haven of eternal repose. I too, in my humble sphere, have been endeavoring to steer my own little bark, by the "book of books" to which you direct my attention, as a rule of action in this matter, to all of which do I feel willing to bow in submission. By its teachings do I honestly wish to be guided through subsequent life. The celebrated John Randolph, of Virginia, once said, however, "that give him Shakespeare and the Bible and he would prove any position he thought proper to occupy."—This sentiment, however, does not accord with my conceptions of right, for there is no man living who holds in higer veneration, than I do, the teachings of that good book. We are told, thereby, that should the ox fall into the ditch on the Sabbath, that it is our duty to take him out, and I am persuaded, by facts patent to all, that the ox is now in the ditch, and that the poor fellow is not only there but flat upon his back, unable to turn at all without promt and immediate assistance; or a speedy death must be the result; hence, I urge, that it is not only our moral, but our christian duty, to employ not only our own, but the efforts of many others, if possible, to save the poor creature from premature death. The reader can apply the figure. I would not be an alarmist; nor would I do anything, under the circumstances, knowingly and willingly, which my judgment could torture into anything dishonest; and you may rest assured that when the eyes of the masses are opened (which are now closed, as appears by reference to the meagre vote polled in this State for Representatives,) they will rise in their majesty, and say at the ballot-box, or otherwise, to the Shylocks of their respective communities, "Thus far shalt thou go, and no farther."

You say, in the editorial referred to, that the wealthy have suffered by the ravages of the late war, equal to those in more limited circumstances. This I deny; and had I time, and you the patience, I would endeavor to show you, that in that matter, you labor under a mistake; and as my only object in this communication is to vindicate my claims to honesty, I waive further remarks upon that subject, and content myself by thanking you in all the kindness of my heart for presenting to public view my former letter, although my good friend and representative, Dr. G. C. Moore, (whom I know will do all he can to alleviate the sufferings of his constituents,) seems to have feared, that he would be charged with the paternity of the production, which lately appeared in the Sentinel, signed

"HERTFORD."

FINDING OF A COURT MARTIAL.—The proceedings and findings in the case of Brevet Brigadier E. Whittlesey, colonel of the Forty-sixth United States colored troops, who was tried by court martial recently at Raleigh, North Carolina, have been published. He was found guilty of "conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline" in having been pecuniarily interested in a plantation while on duty as an assistant commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, but was acquitted of the charge of having denied the fact to General Steedman when questioned in regard to it. The court sentenced him to be reprimanded by his commanding officer, General O. O. Howard, Chief Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The Tribune has this Washington dispatch:

"It is stated here that last evening Secretary Seward called on Mr. Thaddeus Stevens at his rooms, and had a long private interview with him. The statement causes a great deal of comment here, and much speculation is rite to know what it all meant. The above gentlemen have not been on friendly relations with each other for several years. It is rumored that Seward is repentant, like Raymond, and wants to come back into the bosom of the Radical party.—Others think that Seward was sent by President Johnson to make overtures of compromise."

We learn through a gentleman just from Washington, that General Schenck expresses the opinion that no serious effort will be made to territorialize the Southern States. It is, however, supposed that the Radicals will assert the doctrine that it is not necessary to count the votes of the Southern States on the proposed Constitutional Amendment, and will claim that it has been legally ratified.—Richmond Enquirer.

The New York Herald deliberately mistates when it says that the House of Representatives "has resolved to adhere to the pending Constitutional Amendment as the basis of Southern restoration." It has never once proposed such a basis. Its only vote has been a refusal to do so.

[Richmond Enquirer.

The Norfolk Journal, of Saturday, says:

"THE STAVE MARKET.—An immense business is now going on in this port in the article of staves. In addition to the vessels which sailed during the present week, we learn that three vessels are en route to Norfolk to load for the West Indies. The vessels expected are the brig Charles Albert, the Alice Todd, and another, name unknown. Six hundred thousand staves have been loaded at this port during the past week for the West Indies."

The quotation of staves in Norfolk are: W. O. Pipe $90, Culls do $50. W. O. Heading $80, Culls do. $40. W. O. Hhd. $65, Culls $52, R. G. Hhd. $50, Culls do. $30.

The Hon. Wm. Johnston, President of the Charlotte and Columbia Railroad, has donated to Miss M. A. Buie, of Columbia, S. C., a plantation of 100 acres, on a high and healthy ridge, with a cool and gushing spring of pure water, for a proposed school or college, for indigent orphans.

Our Tuesday Morning Dispatches.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.

In the House, Mr. Elliott introduced a resolution directing the Secretary of War to communicate information in reference to the Norfolk riot on the 16th of April, 1866, and to the imprisonment in Georgia, of Rev. A. W. Fincher, a missionary to the freedmen.

By Mr. Kelly, a resolution declaring that the proposition that the war debt of the country should not be extinguished by the generation that contracted it, is not sanctioned by sound principles of national economy, and does not meet the approval of this House. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

By Mr. Spalding, a resolution directing the reconstruction Committee to enquire into the expediency of proposing a joint resolution declaratory of the purpose of Congress to admit the rebellious States on the ratification by them of the Constitutional amendment, and the establishment of a Republican form of government.

Mr. Hart, a resolution calling on the President for information as to all the pardons granted by him.

Mr. Ross offered a resolution instructing some committee to report a bill prohibiting a diminution of National legal currency, and to discourage the issue of bank bills under the National and State laws. Laid on the table by a vote of 94 to 60.

Select committees were announced as follows:

On New Orleans riot: Messrs. Elliott, Shellenburger and Campbell. On murder of United States troops in South Carolina: Messrs. Pike, Farnsworth and Cooper. On Southern Railroads: Messrs. Maynard, McClung, Mercer, Washburne, of Indiana, and Chandler. On Internal Revenue laws: Messrs. Darling, Beauman, Eggleton, Myers and Trimble.

The House passed the bill fixing the regular time of meeting of Congress by a vote of 12 to 29.

MONTREAL, Dec. 10.

The Cabinet held a protracted sitting on Saturday. John Mitchell will be sworn in as Administrator to-morrow. There is no doubt that John H. Surratt implicated in the Lincoln assassination affair was concealed in this City for months. No amount of money would induce his protectors to give any information regarding him.

The President has replied to a resolution of the house asking whether any position of Mexican territory, has been occupied by United States Troops. And if so by what authority, and for what purpose. Congressional.

WASHINTON, Dec. 10.

In the Senate quite a lengthy discussion ensued on the suffrage bill, particularly on the clause disfranchising those citizens who left here to join the Confederate cause. This prohibition was strenously opposed by Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, among others, who said it was too small a matter to make a difficulty about.

Mr. Cowan said that any citizen of the District who joined the Confederate army was guilty of treason. He did not apply this to people of Southern States. But here there was no doubt of the form of government, and no one could doubt where his allegiance was due. He moved to extend the privilege of the bill to females, and contended that if negroes had a right to vote women had also.

The House adjourned without a vote on the amendment.

The committee on Reconstruction have before them a bill providing that Chief Justice Chase shall appoint, for each of the Southern States a Provisional Governor and all other Territorial machinery, and prescribing regulations for holding Conventions for the adoption of Constitutions securing to all men their rights irrespective of color.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. Those two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
118 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhoea, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Goerlck Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now ured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 300 such Testimonals.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude
J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.
